Copies sent by mail, prepaid, any distance under 3,000 miles, for 61 cents. The above work is a delineation of the scenes and incidents connected with the imprisonment, in 1852 of Manuel Pereira, steward of the British brig Jan son, in the jail of Charleston, S. C.

The following notice of this work is copied from the National Era of February 17:

"The above is the title of a work now in press founded upon that inflamous statute of South Carolina by which her citizens claim a right to imprison colored scancer, of all nations, and even those cast upon their shores in distress. We have perused the book in advance of its publication, and find that it gives a life-like picture of Pereira, the vessel in which he sailed the storms she encountered, and her wrecked condition when brought into the port of Charleston, S. C.; to gether with the imprisonment of Pereira, several sea men belonging to the New England States, and two French scamen: the prison regimen, character of the Charleston police, and the mendacity of certain officials, who make the law a medium of peculation. The work is replete with incidents of Southern life and character, pointing Southerners to the things that call for correction at their own hands, with a force that cannot be mistaken. The work is written by one who has taken a prominent part in the affairs of the South and cannot fail to interest alike the general reader commercial man, and phllanthropist."

Extract from the Proface:

"The books are intended to be books of instruction, rather than of mere amusement; and, in perusing them, the reader may feel assured that all the information which they contain, not only in respect to the countries visited, and to the customs, usages, and modes of life that are described, but also in regard to the general character of the incidents and adventures that the young travellers meet with, is in most strict accordance with fact. The main design of the narrative is thus the communication of useful knowledge; and everything which they contain, except what is strictly personal, in relation to the actors in the story, may be depended upon as exactly and scrupulously true." in ardent spirits injurious to its citizens, and calculated to produce inleness, vice, or debauchery. I see nothing in the Constitution of the United States to prevent it from regulating or restraining the traffic, or from prohibiting it altogether, if it thinks proper."

sheet, making eight quarto pages, of four columns to a page; and, excluding advertisements, each number will contain an amount of reading matter equal at least to that furnished by our larger-sized daily jour-nals, or to that of an ordinary duodecimo volume of 50 pages.

Its Object.—To advocate the Cause of Tempe

ance generally, and especially the Legislative Prohibi-tion of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, to pre-pare the minds of the masses for such Prohibition, by showing its expediency and Necessity, and to secure, by all the influence it may legitimately exert, the vigorous enforcement of Prohibitory Laws when ob-tained.

Improved Timekeepers, would respectfully call public attention to his extensive and valuable stock of Compensated Chronometer Watches, made by Charles Frodsham, and styled his "New Series." In the Watches of the new series, Mr. Frodsham has succeeded—by a more perfect method of compensation, a more correct adjustment in isochronism, and an entirely new and peculiar construction of the train, by which more power is obtained without increase of size—in producing timekeepers of wonderful and unrivalled accuracy. The great importance of the improved Watches is a perfect regularity of time, under every variety of climate, motion, and position. So perfect are the adjustments, that the most violont exercise—such as horseback riding, jumping, &c-produces on them no sensible effect. They are therefore peculiarly adapted to railroud purposes.

The scientific French critic, Mons. Borsendorf, in his review of the Great London Exhibition of 1851, styles the contribution of Mr. Charles Frodsham as "bearing the stamp of peculiar merit, and as being the flower of the English school."

The British Government have awarded Messrs. Arnold and Charles Frodsham the sum of £3,170, for the excellence of the principle of their timekeepers. One of Mr. Frodsham's correspondents writes as follows: tained.

Its Field.—Dealing with general principles, with arguments alike applicable to every community when the traffic exists and with facts illustrative of these arguments and principles, the paper will be National in its spirit, in its scope, in its purpose, and, we trust, it will be National in its circulation and influence. Such is our aim and expectation. We desire to see the Principle of Prohibition established in State after State, till it becomes the recognised policy of the Nation. It is our ambition to bear a part in this great work, and to this end The Prohibition to rook it is established. follows:

London, April 26, 1852.

Sir: I have much pleasure in giving in account of the Gold Compensation Lever Watch. No. 3,325, you have made for me, and in which I expressly stipulated that it should maintain a uniform rate of going under every variety of motion and climate. This it has done in a most remarkable manner; its rate of going for the first six months was five seconds per month, and in the next six months it changed its rate a little faster, viz: eight seconds per month, and at lished, not as the organ of a society merely, but of GREAT REPORMATORY MOVEMENT. month, and in the next six months it changed its rate a little faster, vis: eight seconds per month, and at the end of 365 days it was found to be fast of Greenwich mean time one minute and fifteen seconds. Though I was not led by any previous promise to expect such performance, yet I believe it is only the usual character of your improved watches, which you term your "new sacies."

ITS NECESSITY.—The existing Temperance Journals have little, if any, circulation outside of the Temperance Ranks. Their price almost necessarily restricts them to the friends of the cause. The Pacstricts them to the friends of the cause. This Pro-III Trons is is designed for circulation (instead of tracts) among the indifferent and the hostile. For this purpose it is put at a price so low as to enable the friends of Temperance in every school district, by combined action and at an inconsiderable expense, to place a copy in each family that will consent to re-ceive it.

Is the cheapest and best Musical Paper in the world. This Journal, which has heretofore been published monthly, commences its fifth year in January next, and thenceforward it will be published every two weeks—on every other Thursday; thereby giving more than twice as much matter, without any increase in price. Each number contains sixteen quarto pages, four of which are new music, consisting of glees, hymn tunes, chants, anthems, dedication and holyday pieces, and, in short, every variety of music adapted to purposes of religious worship, to public occasions, and to the home circle; all of which will be of a practical character, and such as can be sung by persons of ordinary musical attainments. In the editorial department of the Review are engaged (in addition to Mr Cady, the former editor) gentlemen of the highest talent and ripost musical experience, among whom are George F. Root, William B. Bradbury, Thomas Hastings, and Lowell Mason; and its circle of correspondence, home and foreign, is complete. The Review will also be a regular medium for the announcement of new musical publications by all the leading publishing houses in the NOW READY, the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington, and others of the Family, by B. P. Shillaber, of the Boston Post.

The subscription list of this paper is now larger than that of any similar journal in the world, and the new arrangements, rendering it the cheapest as well as (it is hoped) the most valuable musical paper ever published, must largely increase its already unparalleled circulation.

PUBLISHERS! ANNOUNCEMENT! ELEVENTH VOLUME OF THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST

Weekly Agricultural Paper of the Country. THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, a weekly

The American Agriculturities, a weekly an annual volume of 832 pages of nearly double the size of those in the first ten volumes of the Agriculturist.

It is beautifully printed with type cast expressly for it, and on the best of clear white paper, with wide margin, so that the numbers can be easily stitched or bound together.

A coplous Index is weekly added, which will be fully amplified at the end of the year, for the bound work.

Comprehensive in its Character,

Each volume will contain all matter worth recording, which transpires either at home or abroad, and which can serve to instruct or interest the Farmer, the Planter, the Fruit-Grower, the Gardener, and the Stock Breeder; thus making it the most complete and useful Agricultural Publication of the day.

Correct and valuable Market Reports. The Markets will be carefully reported, giving the actual transactions which take place from week to week, in Grain, Provisions, Cattle, &c.; thus keeping our readers constantly and reliably advised as to their interests. During the past year, the knowledge obtained from these Market Reports alone has saved our readers thousands of dollars, by informing them of the best time to sell or purchase.

Such a Paper is demanded by the Farming Community.

The publishers confidently believe that the agriand publishers connidently believe that the agri-culturists of this country are becoming too much awake to the demands of their own calling to be longer satisfied with the slow monthly issues of a pa-per professedly devoted to their interests, or to trust alone to the irresponsible extracts in a "farmer's column," so popular just now in papers chiefly devo-ted to business politics or literature, and they look ted to business, politics, or literature; and they look for the united support of all the intelligent farmers of this country in their continued effort to farnish a weekly paper of a high and reliable character, which shall be progressive, and at the same time cautious and conservative in all its teachings.

Essentially an Agricultural Paper. Essentially an Agricultural Paper.

The Agriculturist will not depart from its legitimate sphere to catch popular favor by lumbering up its pages, with the silly, fictitious literature, and light, miscellancous matter of the day; it has a higher aim; and a small part only of its space will be devoted to matters not immediately pertaining to the great business of Agriculture. The household as well as the out-door work of the farm will receive a due share of attention. The humburg and postgraps well as the out-door work of the farm will receive a due share of attention. The humbugs and nostrums affoat in the community will be tried by reliable scientific rules, and their worthlessness exposed. It is the aim of the publishers to keep this paper under the guidance of those who will make it a standard work, which shall communicate to its readers only that which is safe and reliable.

An Independent Journal. An Independent Journal.

The American Agriculturist stands upon its own merits; and the truthfulness, scal, and ability, which it brings to the support of the interests of the farmer. It is untrammeled by any collateral business connections whatever; nor is it the organ of any clique, or the puffing machine of any man or thing. Thoroughly independent in all points, its ample pages are studiously given alone to the support and improvement of the great agricultural class.
